

Women Speak to Power

11th & 12th October 2018

12.30 PM → 3.00 PM

It is 100 years since women got the right to vote. We are going to celebrate this with 2 events for women with learning difficulties.

On the 11th October –

- learn how women got the vote
- why it is important to vote
- write questions to ask politicians on 12th

On 12th October we have MPs and local councillors coming to answer your questions.

The MPs are Andrea Jenkyns (Conservative) and Rachel Reeves (Labour).

The Councillors are - Ann Blackburn (Green), Rebecca Charlwood (Labour), Dawn Collins (Conservative) and Sarah Field (Garforth & Swillington Independents).

A light lunch will be provided
